STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF
THE PERMANENT FUND OF
THE BOSTON YOUNG
MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION.

STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND.

The Trustees of the Permanent Fund are pleased to note the continued success and influence of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, evidence of which was again forcibly shown at the annual meeting (52d) year held Wednesday evening, April 8, 1903, when the several sub-committees presented reports of the active work of the Union during the year just closed.

We are impressed more than ever with a deep sense of the importance and the wide-spread influence of the work of this society over the thousands of young men who by the interests of business, trades, educational facilities, or other reasons will be attracted to the city, and also over those born and reared in Boston.

As in the midst of this active life we linger and look back upon the eventful history of the Union in the past, and its continued growth from year to year, and then look forward and reflect upon what its possibilities may be in the future, we feel assured that the many friends of the Union will join with the Trustees in the earnest desire that the society shall be placed upon such a strong financial foundation that the time may not be far distant when the Permanent Fund shall be so increased by donations and legacies that will enable us to embrace larger opportunities and offer greater advantages to the thousands of young men with whom we come in contact.

OF THE

Committees of the Board of Government.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Finance Committee again take pleasure in stating that, as for many years in the past, the financial standing of the Union has been in a satisfactory condition, and congratulate the society upon this fact.

More and more, as the years roll on, they appreciate the kindness of those friends who in the past have by their financial assistance enabled the Union to carry forward successfully this great work in all its branches, religious, moral, benevolent, educational, social, and physical.

To the ladies, gentlemen, and business firms who have so kindly and cheerfully responded during the past year, your Finance Committee take this occasion to express their sincere thanks.

This spirit of helpfulness is always very encouraging, and enables us to go forward confidently in the interests and welfare of the large number of young men who come within our reach and influence.

We fully realize that upon the condition of the financial affairs of a society such as this Christian Union rests largely the degree of success which will follow the labors of those who may be actively engaged in its interests.

During the year many friends of the Union have called in person or forwarded amounts, by mail or otherwise, to Wm. H. Baldwin, President (chairman of the Finance Committee), at his office in the Union Building, 48 Boylston Street.

Should any friends be prompted at any time during the year to come to enclose donations for the "General Purposes" of the Union, we assure them their kindness will be fully appreciated.

All sums received will be entered in the "Book of Donors," and receipts sent by mail or given at the time.

The Committee present (on the next page) the following financial statement made by the Treasurer, William L. Richardson.

WILLIAM H. BALDWIN, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

The work of the Committee on Lectures, Classes, and Entertainments is a growing one. It provides amusement for our large membership, embraces the educational side of the Union, and supervises such courses of lectures as are now given during the winter. Wednesday night has for many years been set apart as the night upon which all entertainments are given; and the scope of these include musicales, readings, and dramatic entertainments. We have tendered to us each season the services of some of the best amateurs in Boston, and the high standard of these entertainments has been many times a matter of congratulation.

Classes. The classes which are spoken of at length later in this report more than occupied the space provided for them, and the problem again presents itself of further accommodations in this direction. Our lecture course, which has for so many years been termed the "Practical Talks," has again been most successful; and The Union Hall has been crowded upon every Saturday night.

We take this opportunity of referring to the lack of accommodations behind the stage. Larger dressing-rooms and more extensive scenery and fittings would be of great advantage ; and, when a new annex is put upon the Union, this Committee hopes to share in some of the benefits which it will afford.

It is a remarkable fact that the entertainments which are given are entirely voluntary on the part of the participants, so that this branch of the work is accomplished at a minimum expense with the maximum quality of talent. Mr. H. C. Bronsdon, the Curator, has supervised the details of the entertainments in a most creditable manner. To the many clubs and to individuals, both ladies and gentlemen, we desire to place on public record our indebtedness for their services, and feel assured that it is a source of satisfaction to them that they have contributed to the successful work of the Union in this direction. When the work of the Union was begun, now so many years ago, we were in a measure pioneers in some classes of entertainments, but now have to compete in many directions with the best that money can furnish. The loyalty of our members and their interest in the Union deserves mention ; and, in closing this report, we desire to refer to their appreciation of the entertainments which we have offered to them.

Term, twenty weeks, beginning Nov. 3, 1902. One lesson per week in every class. Fee, $1.00, returnable (to Union members) at end of term, less ten cents for every unexcused absence.

The Union has continued its modest educational efforts during the past season with the usual success. In these days, when he who runs may read and learning is being served up on every hand in a sort of quick lunch fashion, the demand for such tuition as the Union offers would seem likely to be limited. That demand, however, continues, with some yearly increase, and the opportunities and inducements presented by the Union have met with much appreciation from the young people who have filled our class-rooms.

The branches taught have been varied, the utilitarian preponderating in some, like Arithmetic and Grammar, while in the others, like Drawing and Design, the ornamental has been conspicuous; but the aim has been to make every study both attractive and valuable.

No new classes have been added during the past year, but certain changes in instructors may be briefly mentioned.

The class in Commercial Arithmetic passed from the care of Mr. L. B. Williams into that of Mr. F. P. Vose, of the Bryant & Stratton School, who has done excellent service.

In Drawing Mr. J. A. Frizzell found himself able to give only one evening a week to the Union work. He accordingly continued his class in Mechanical Drawing, but gave up his Free-hand Class to Mr. W. L. Skinner, already popular as a Union teacher, who has had charge of both the Free-hand classes during the season.

The English Grammar Class, formerly led by Mr. O. E. Pease, has been in charge of Mr. F. M. McCutcheon for the past year. That gentleman's experience and ability insured his success, and the attendance was so large that a division of the class became necessary.

The Union has sustained a real loss in the removal from Boston of Mr. Ernest B. Conant, whose Law Lectures during the past three years have given distinction to both himself and his class. He was succeeded, however, on January 12 by Mr. H. P. Frank, who has ably carried on the course arranged by Mr. Conant.

Our Book-keeping classes have continued under

Mr. Duffill's skilled and judicious management. Decoration and Design have again been taught by our artist teacher, Mr. H. D. White; and Electricity has once more been set flashing by Mr. W. L. Smith, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Chapin's reputation as a teacher of Penmanship has again filled his class-room, and Mr. W. S. White has had an equal success in Shorthand.

Elocution and Professor Bickford seem as closely identified as the Christian Union and Mr. Baldwin. The class this year was as popular as ever. As a mid-winter show, they gave in The Union Hall, on the evening of February 11, a "District School," to the delight of a large audience; and their "Annual" on March 25 proved equally entertaining.

The Language Classes are among our most important educational undertakings, and claim the largest number of pupils. French, German, Italian, and Spanish have been taught in nine classes; and to state that these were all conducted by teachers from the Berlitz School sufficiently explains their great success.

The Union Class in English Literature has achieved a permanent standing of a high character under Professor Harper's scholarly direction. The past season has been devoted to the study of Shakespeare, an inexhaustible subject, which is likely to be taken up again next year. Various readings were given during the course, and lectures were delivered as follows:—

The History of the English Drama to the Time of Shakespeare.

The Elizabethan Age.

The Theatre in Shakespeare's Time.

The Man, Shakespeare.

The Mind and Genius of Shakespeare.

Shakespeare's Art.

Shakespeare's Heroines.

Shakespeare's Heroes.

Shakespeare's Fools and Clowns.

Julius Cæsar.

The Comedy of Errors.

The Taming of the Shrew.

The Tempest.

The Fifteenth Century Morality Play, "Everyman."

Three Clubs have place on our Class List, the Travelers', Stenographic, and Debating. The Travelers' Club was organized in the fall of 1901, and was well attended during that season ; but the interest has not been sustained during the past term, and it was thought best to discontinue the club last January.

With the Stenographic Club our experience has been more fortunate. Mr. White, the teacher of the Shorthand Class, has had charge of this club from its small beginning in 1899 to the present time ; and, thanks to his faithful and judicious management, it has attained its present popularity and usefulness. It affords weekly opportunities of writing from dictation under the supervision of an experienced and able teacher, and has proved of great practical value.

The Debating Club is an organization which the Union has taken pains to encourage and develop. It has had a long and honorable record, which we hope may continue. During the past season the club has had the good fortune to have for its presiding officer, Mr. Henry D. Coolidge (Clerk of the Massachusetts Senate), who has supervised the debates and given regular instruction in Parliamentary Law and kindred topics. There has been but one joint debate during the past season. This was with the Highland Union at their rooms in Roxbury, on the evening of March 26, on the following question : —

“Resolved, That the Referendum and Initiative should be adopted in Massachusetts, the petition of 50,000 voters being necessary to initiate or refer legislation.”

The Union Debating Club supported the affirmative, and was defeated.

The following subjects were discussed during the term : —

A resolve favoring reciprocity with Canada. Adopted.

A resolve in favor of making provisions for the widows and children of men who lose their lives in the life-saving service. Adopted.

A resolve in favor of ownership of the coal mines by the United States government. Adopted by vote of 17-6.

A bill classifying licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors and regulating the same. Rejected.

A resolution in favor of abolishing slavery in the Philippine Islands. Rejected.

A resolution favoring election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people. Adopted.

A resolution favoring the holding of cabinet positions by Congressmen. Rejected.

A bill re-establishing the canteen system in the United States Army. Passed.

A resolution prohibiting immigration into the United States. Rejected.

A resolution favoring the initiative and referendum in Massachusetts. Rejected because of tie vote. 8-8.

A bill prohibiting the issuing of circulars derogatory to political candidates during the four days preceding the election concerned. Rejected.

A resolution for the regulation of boxing contests. Passed.

A resolution in favor of an inheritance tax in preference to the present taxes on real and personal property. Rejected.

A resolution abolishing trusts. Adopted.

A resolution limiting the application of the Monroe Doctrine to the North American Continent. Rejected.

FIFTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY RECEPTION.

The close of the fifty-first year was marked by the customary anniversary held in the rooms of the Union Building, Wednesday evening, May 28. President Baldwin and the Board of Government received in the Directors' Room. The special guests of the occasion were Hon. John D. Long and Hon. J. J. Myers, Speaker of the House of Representatives. Every part of the building was bright with light, and tasteful decorations with flowers in evidence everywhere. The informality of this occasion is always delightful, no set speeches being permitted, it being in the nature of an "old home week" evening for past and present members of the Union.

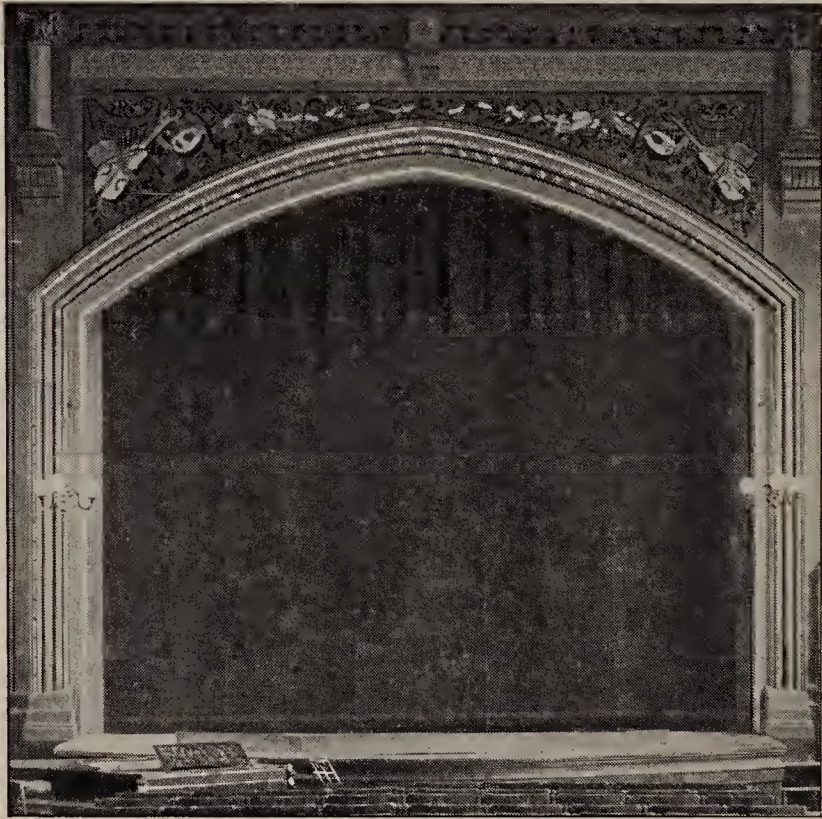

Mr. Baldwin received many letters of regret, amongst the number from Hon. P. A. Collins, President Eliot of Harvard, President Pritchett of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Colonel Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Judge Francis C. Lowell, and the Hon. George H. Lyman.

There were various orchestras in different parts of the building: in the Library and Reception Room, Nay & Odell's Concert Orchestra; in The Union Hall, Langham Mandolin Orchestra, assisted by the Clover Club and Apollo Male Quartette. In the Gymnasium, to music by The Union Orchestra, the members of that department gave a complimentary exhibition which evoked many pleasant comments from a large crowd of interested spectators.

The customary end of the season's exhibition of work of the various classes was held in the class-rooms, which were visited by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Thomas F. Galvin donated, as has been his custom for many years, the flowers used; and they were many and handsome.

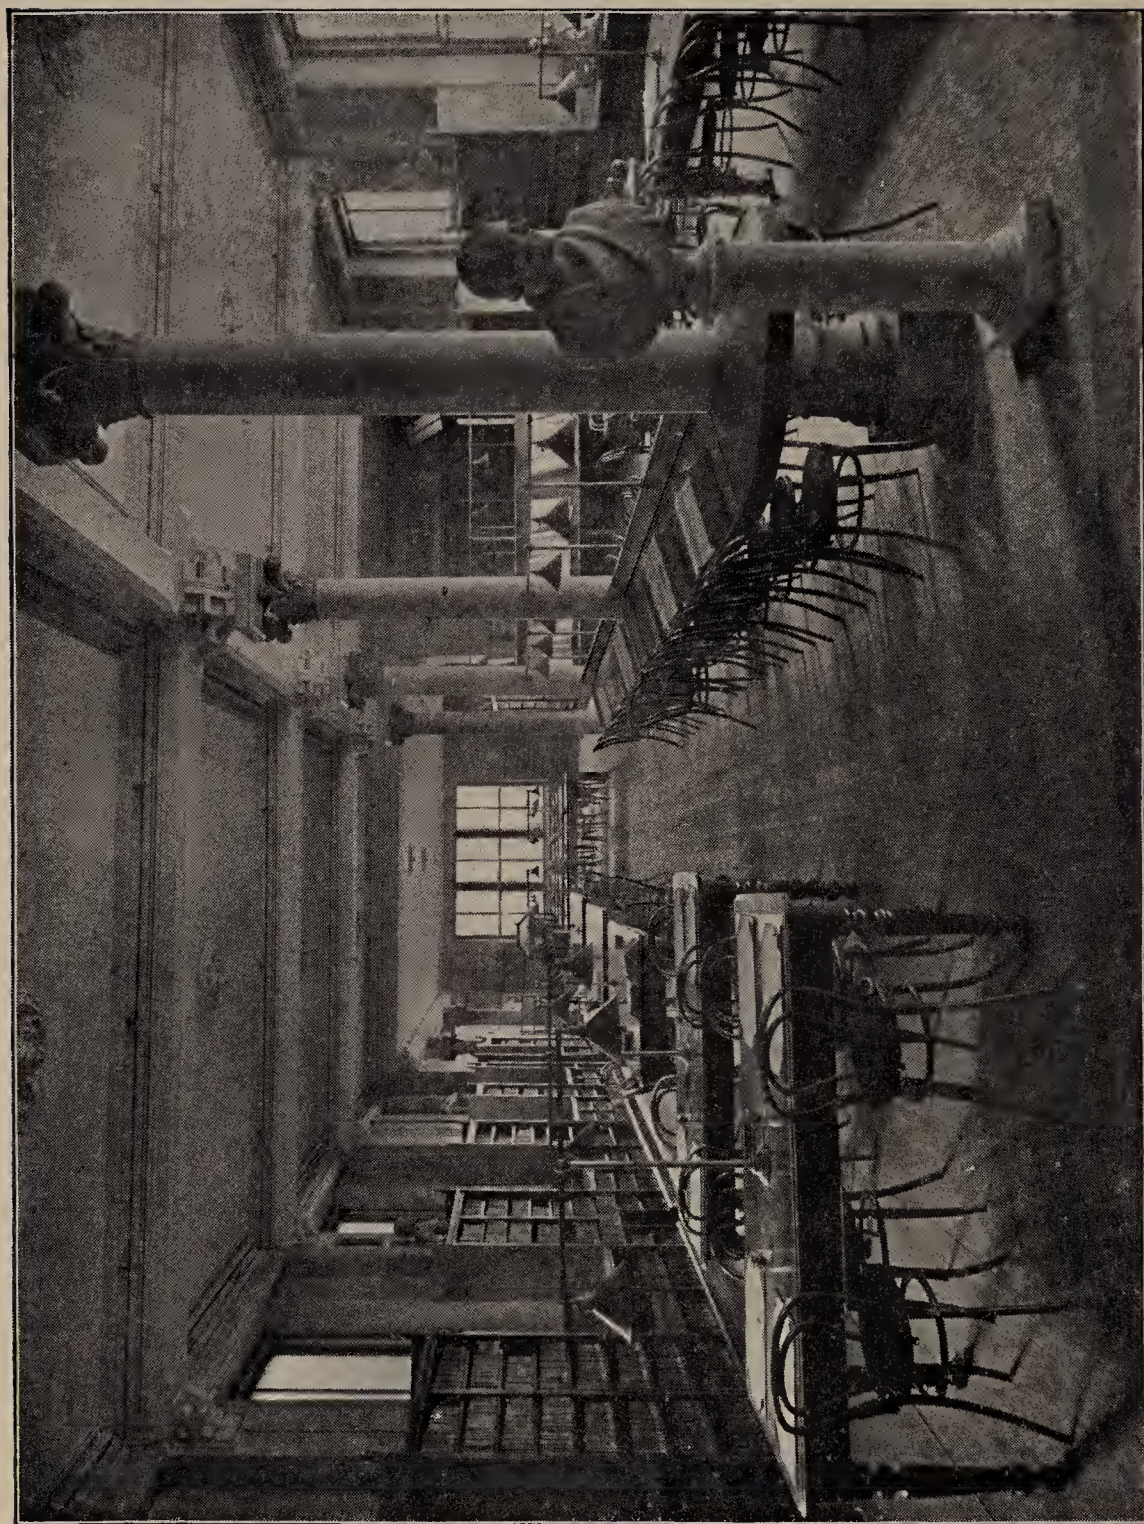

This annual reunion of the friends of the Union, which occurs at the end of the active work of the winter, is appreciated for the opportunity it offers to personally greet Mr. Baldwin and to congratulate him upon the continued success.

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.

LIBRARY, FROM RECEPTION-ROOM.

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.

During the past year the Library has been under the care of Richard Ray, Jr. The following report by him shows the general condition of the Library during the year : —

Number of volumes at the beginning of the year
(April 1, 1902)	16,031
Added by gift	22
Added by purchase	593
Bound from periodicals	28
Missing volumes returned	102
	<hr/> 745
	16,776
Missing and withdrawn	141
	<hr/>
Number of volumes in Library at present time	16,635
Number of volumes rebound during the year	522
Number of volumes worn out and replaced	27
Issued for home reading	24,519
Charged (April 1, 1903) as out	665
Number of volumes in the Study	319

The Reading-room. The Reading-room receives regularly nineteen dailies (of which four are duplicated), sixty-nine weeklies, forty-five monthlies, one bi-monthly, and six quarterlies, making the total number of periodicals one hundred and forty.

Magazines for Home Reading. The current numbers of Atlantic, Century, Harper's, Scribner's, New England Magazine, and Outing, were issued each month for home reading and were in constant demand, each member having the privilege of taking one of these magazines in addition to one volume at a time from the Library.

The following statistics for the year show the circulation of the above: Harper's, 354; Scribner's, 324; Century, 293; Outing, 158; New England Magazine, 89; and Atlantic, 82,—a total circulation of 1,300.

Reference Books. The reference collection, with its encyclopædias, dictionaries, and similar works, has been used to advantage daily by large numbers of young men and others who find here information on many subjects; and the importance of keeping this department up-to-date is fully realized by our Committee.

No statistics have been kept of the numbers who visit the Reading-room; but it is very gratifying to see the room filled with students and readers, especially evenings and Sundays, and to note the increasing use of the books and periodicals.

The Library was open for business 365 days, from 9 A.M. to 10 P.M. The circulation for home reading was 24,519. The largest circulation for any one day was on Saturday, Jan. 31, 1903,—162; the smallest on Sunday, Aug. 3, 1902,—13.

Through more than half a century of increasing vigor and usefulness the Library has kept pace with the membership, and to-day it is a vital part of the work of the Union, well equipped and readily accessible.

Possibilities and Opportunities. It has been well said that “in a liberal sense a library is the people’s University.” To many young men it opens up a new world,—a world full of possibilities and opportunities for self-education and broad culture.

FIRE-PLACE IN LIBRARY AND ENTRANCE TO STUDY.

Educational Forces.

The number of volumes now in the Library is over 16,600; and it is the earnest desire of the Committee that the great educational forces confined within the covers of this multitude of books shall serve their highest usefulness, and stimulate in the young men who come under their influence a deep, abiding ambition to make the most of themselves and intelligently and wisely fulfil the duties of life.

The advantage of open shelves, "books free from bondage," has not been overestimated; and from the beginning this system of absolute freedom of access to the shelves has been in practice in the Library, and deeply appreciated by our young men.

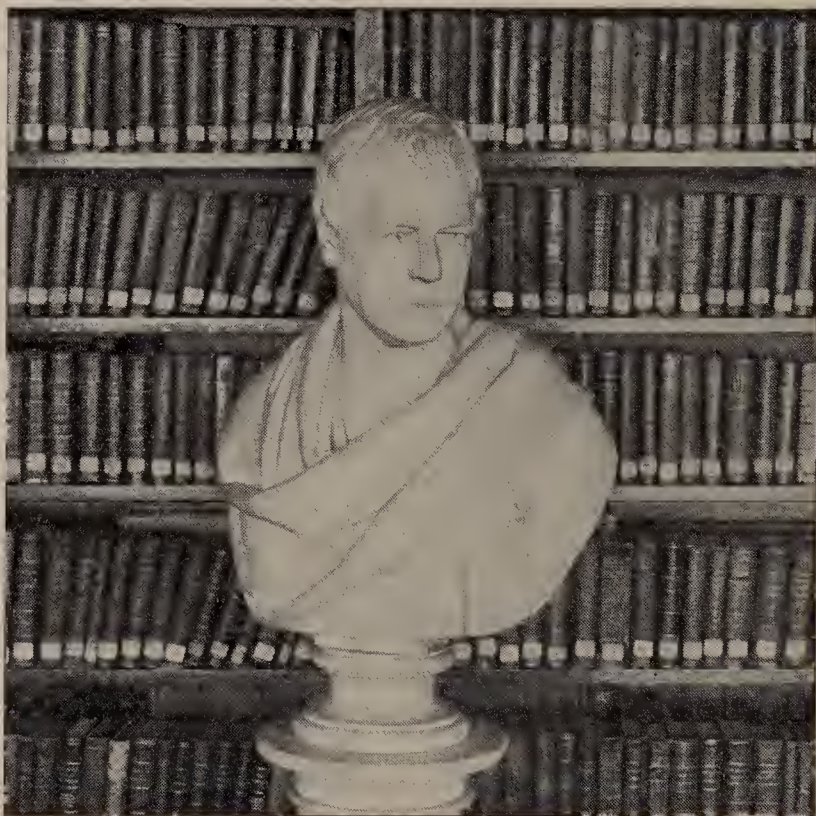

The annual examination took place during the summer without closing the Library, the card catalogue has been kept up, manuscript lists of new books posted frequently, printed lists of new additions issued as supplements to the Union Bulletin, and all applications for books not in the Library, if deemed suitable by the Committee, have been purchased and placed on the shelves.

The principal collections in the Library are located as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.

OFFICE.

COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.

The attendance in the Reception Room, Sitting Room, and Library this year, has been larger than in previous years; and the winter season has found the Union Building inadequate to meet the demands.

The repairs, alterations, and improvements have required considerable outlay of money.

The increased use of the Gymnasium has compelled the addition of new lockers and the building of a room for the "striking-bag," together with a dressing-room to accommodate the larger membership.

The Union parlors and rooms for games have been open from 7.30 to 9.45 P.M.. each evening of the week, except Sunday, and have been fully appreciated by the goodly number of members who have patronized them.

The usher corps was organized in the early fall, and the following-named gentlemen have favored the Union on occasions when their services have been required: —

FRANK W. BRYANT, Chairman.

WALTER B. HAINES.

CURTIS S. FAIRBANKS.

HARRY I. SADLER.

CLARENCE L. LINZ.

ARTHUR A. SMALLMAN.

PHILIP A. MYRICK.

WINFIELD L. NOURSE.

ARTHUR C. PENDERGAST.

ARTHUR V. HOWLAND.

NELSON J. PEABODY.

The Committee take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of the faithful manner with which these gentlemen have so earnestly served, and the intelligence, courtesy, and zeal which they have displayed in their interest to promote the welfare of the Union.

The members of the Committee wish to express their thanks to the following donors who have so kindly favored the Union the past year : —

The family of the late Hon. Otis Norcross, a former Trustee of the Union, who have generously placed in Norcross Hall a handsome bronze tablet in honor of his memory.

Estate of Hollis H. Hunnewell, by Mrs. Robert G. Shaw, one sofa, two armchairs, two upholstered chairs, plush chair, bookcase, library table, music rack, easel, oil painting, portières, pair of vases, carpet, and Wardian case.

From Miss Frances M. Faulkner, mahogany bookcase, two upholstered hall chairs, and portières.

The Union is rapidly outgrowing its accommodations ; and its increasing membership will, in the near future, necessitate a radical readjustment of its various activities, in order that the rooms may best serve our purposes. Your Committee have given this subject much consideration, with the hope that a solution of the problem may be reached, accruing to the lasting benefit of our beloved institution.

In order to relieve President Baldwin of some of the minor details of work and to give him further time to devote to the larger interests of the Christian Union, it has been found necessary to increase our office force by the addition of one clerk (Mr. Edwin W. Schildknecht) and to arrange that Mr. Richard Ray, Jr., in addition to his duties as Librarian, should assume the duties of " Assistant to the President," with a desk in the Directors' Room.

The rooms have been under the supervision of Herbert C. Bronsdon, Curator, assisted by Richard Ray, Jr., Librarian ; James H. Dalton, Book-keeper ; Edwin

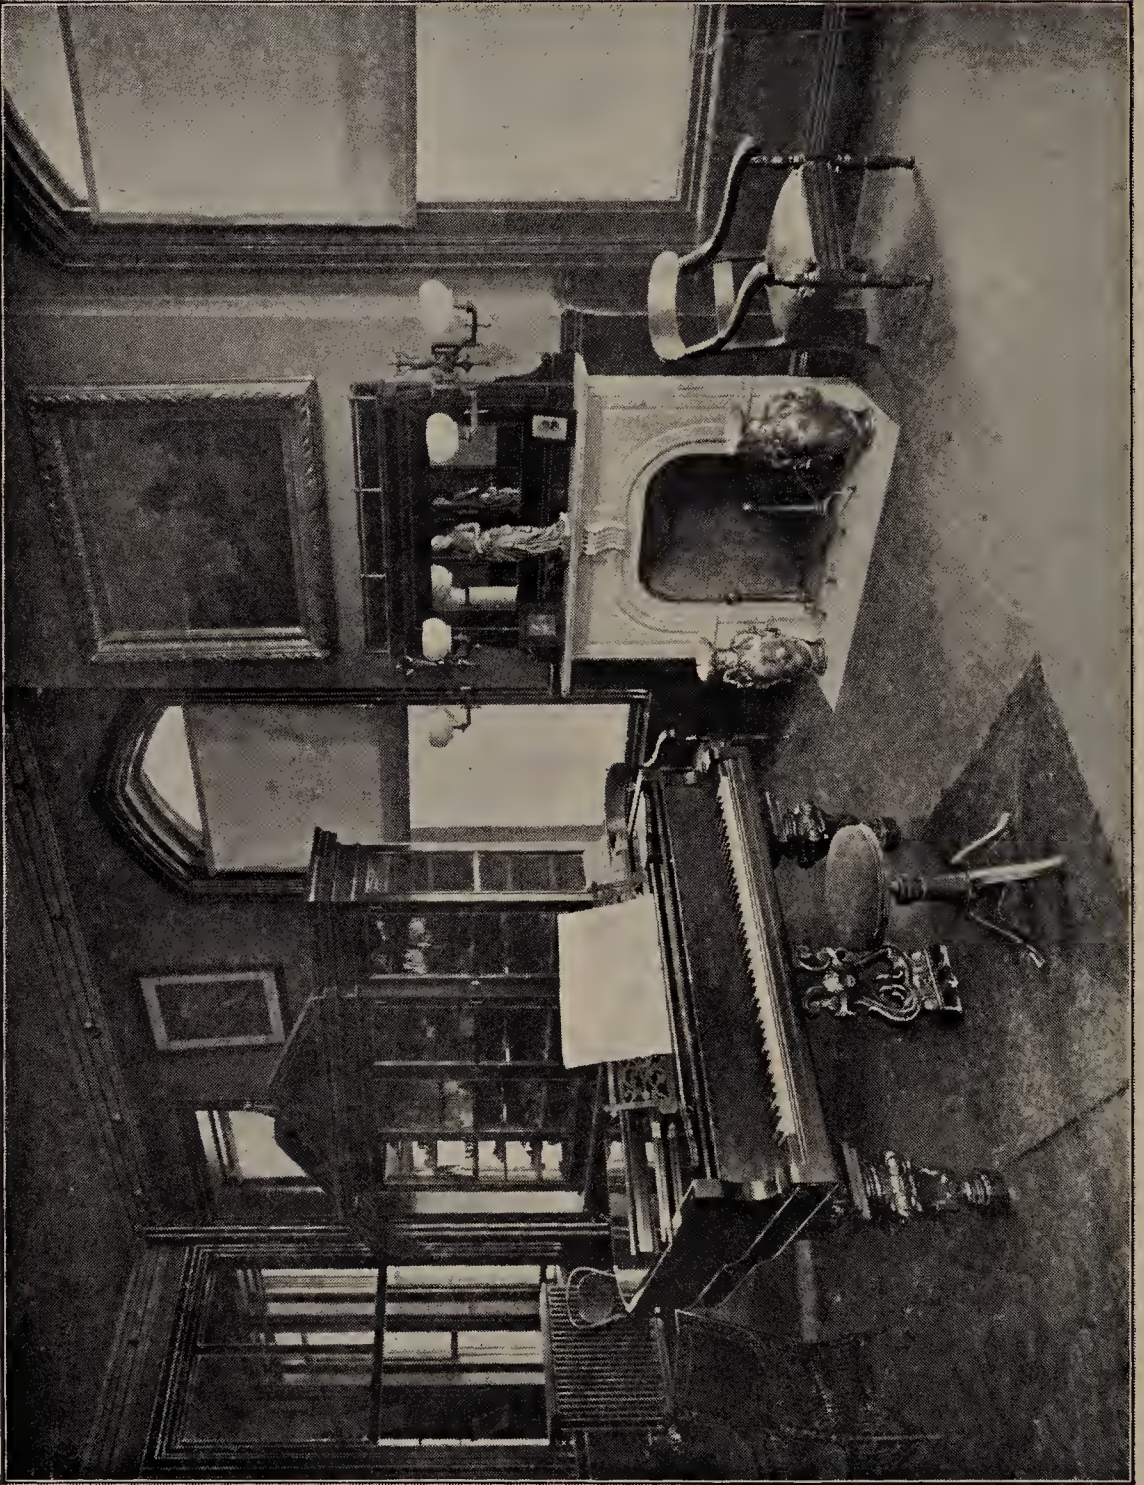

W. Schildknecht, Clerk ; Henry C. Herman, Janitor ; David T. Harding, Carpenter ; Stephen N. Wigglesworth, in charge of the stage when the hall was in use.

To these gentlemen the Committee wish to extend their thanks for the generous and self-sacrificing manner in which they have so efficiently served the Union.

COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS.

April 1, 1903.

The total membership, April 1, 1903, was five thousand seven hundred and ninety-two (5,792).

Facts speak louder than words. Twenty years ago, at the time the building was enlarged, owing to lack of accommodations for its increasing membership, the list of members comprised four thousand six hundred and forty-two (4,642), of whom one thousand two hundred and fifty (1,250) were Life Members. Five years ago the number of members had increased to five thousand four hundred and forty-six (5,446), of whom two thousand and forty-two (2,042) were Life Members. To-day we have a membership of five thousand seven hundred and ninety-two (5,792), of whom twenty-one hundred (2,100) are Life Members. Surely, no further proof of the prosperity and wide-spread influence of the Union is needed.

Following is a full list of the members for the year ending March 31, 1903:—

New members, one thousand six hundred and sixty-eight,
less six (6) deceased	1,662
Renewals, two thousand twenty-three	2,023
Subscription, two	2
Subscription renewals, six (6), less one (1) who became Life
Member	5
Life Members (new), twenty-four	24
Life Members April 1, 1902	2,101
Deceased in 1902-1903	25	2,076
		<hr/> 5,792

We regret to record the loss by death of twenty-five of our Life Members during the past year. The total number of Life Members now deceased is seven hundred sixty-one (761). Their names appear (marked *) in the following list.

It is desired that information of the decease of Life Members whose names are not so marked be sent to the President, William H. Baldwin, 48 Boylston Street.

All members are earnestly urged to become Life Members, and thus show their permanent interest in the welfare and success of the Union.

For full list of Life Members and Subscription Members, see the following pages.

LIFE MEMBERS.

The President would appreciate information for our records, as to change of address of any Life Member, by postal card, addressed to William H. Baldwin, President, 48 Boylston Street, Boston, or telephone Oxford 123.

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

CORNER OF PARLOR. "WATERSTON COLLECTION" OF BOOKS.

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

The work of this Committee goes steadily on from year to year. Every season makes its varying demands upon us ; and, as opportunities for service increase and the means of improving them are provided, a constant effort is made to keep our efficiency at its highest power.

The Country Week stands first on our list of special enterprises, and occupies also a conspicuous position in the eyes of the public. For twenty-eight successive summers we have been furnishing city children with country vacations, and many thousands of little ones have enjoyed these privileges. It is a simple and direct way of giving an immediate pleasure and a lasting benefit, not a patronizing "charity," but only a neighborly kindness shown by those who have to those who have not. A prettily illustrated report of this work, giving many interesting details, may be had on application ; and the main statistics for the season of 1902 are as follows :—

Number sent into country	2,729
Cash on hand April 1, 1902	$1,274.13
Receipts	13,137.35

Balance March 31, 1903	$622.50

Miss E. S. Johnson has continued in charge of the "Country Week" as Secretary and Manager, and has also extended her valuable service to other departments of the Union's benevolent activities. A most efficient committee has assisted in the Country Week work. Their names are here given, and their self-sacrificing and unfaltering labors merit the grateful appreciation of all whose generous contributions have supported this undertaking: —

Rides for Invalids is also a Union specialty of long standing,— "a service of those who love for those who suffer."

It carries many a poor invalid to the hospital, or, better still, takes him away from it. Through its kindly ministrations the convalescent gets a breath of fresh air and a sight of green fields, the aged and infirm are cheered by an hour's driving, and many tired mothers are enabled to take their little children on a car-ride or a harbor excursion.

Care is taken to have tickets and carriage orders wisely distributed, and it is believed that these privileges are not abused. While the heaviest demands in this connection are made during the warmer weather, the service is a continuous one, and winter also sees uses for it.

These are the statistics for the past year : —

Carriage drives furnished	1,584
Harbor tickets	1,204
Car tickets	12,755
Total	15,543
Cash on hand April 1, 1902	$1,580.31

The Thanksgiving Dinner was spread for the thirty-fourth time at the Christian Union on Thursday noon, Nov. 27, 1902. This hospitality is intended especially for those members of our organization who are distant from their own homes or who have no immediate family ties. Over two hundred were present on this occasion; and at one o'clock President Baldwin led his guests to the well-laden tables in The Union Hall, while Mr. Nay's Orchestra gave some appetizing music. An attractive pamphlet at each plate gave the day's bill of fare, an account of the first Thanksgiving in 1621, the State and National proclamations, a special hymn for the occasion, "America," and an invocation, in which the company joined.

When the dinner had disappeared, a hymn was sung and the post-prandial speeches followed, most felicitously opened by President Baldwin, who was succeeded by our good life-member and life-friend, the Rev. Edward A. Horton. Charles L. Burrill, of our Board of Government, gave a breezy little speech, and was followed by Richard Ray, Jr., Herbert C. Bronsdon, and George N. Faught. Remarks were also made by the representatives of different countries and States present, and in this way most of the civilized world was heard from. Letters were read from various distinguished friends of the Union, a vote of thanks was passed, the usual barrel of Baldwin apples was opened, and the company finally broke up with the feeling that they had had "a real good time."

The Committee of Arrangements consisted of Messrs. George N. Faught, Arthur V. Howland, and Herbert C. Bronsdon, of our members, and Messrs. William H. Baldwin, Charles L. Burrill, and William H. Brown, of the Board of Government.

Contributions to the entertainment were received, in cash, from several generous friends; and liberal donations were tendered by the following-named parties: J. Reed Whipple & Co., Parker House, poultry and plum puddings; also from Young's Hotel, poultry; George G. Hall, Adams House, poultry, pastry, cake; S. S. Pierce & Co., dessert in full variety; P. & I. Besse, ice-creams; Jones, McDuffee & Stratton, use of crockery and glassware; Cobb, Bates & Yerxa, sugar, butter, etc.; David Whiting & Sons, butter and milk; Oriental Tea Company, coffee; Hiram Ricker & Sons, Poland Water; Samuel A. Neill, spices; George H. Ellis, neat and attractive bills of fare; C. H. McKenney & Co., loan of banquet lamps; flowers in part by Wax Brothers; preparing and cooking vegetables by Murray & Conway, Brigham's Hotel; also voluntary cash contributions from friends.

The Christmas Festival had a joyous celebration on the afternoon of Saturday, January 3, when some six hundred and fifty children crowded The Union Hall and made a Happy New Year to those who had the privilege of entertaining them. President Baldwin led the programme with his annual greeting, perhaps the briefest speech which Mr. Baldwin is called upon to deliver during the year, but certainly not the least eloquent one.

This was followed by a fine exhibition of moving pictures, shown by Mr. F. J. Howard, and vastly enjoyed by the little ones. Then came some lively acrobatic acts by members of the Union Gymnasium, which no doubt were copied later by the juvenile spectators at home.

The appearance in the hall of ice-cream and cake was hailed with whoops of delight; and the young men and maidens, who served as waiters, had no easy task in distributing their goods.

The musical features of the occasion should be especially noted. The instrumental part was supplied by The Union Orchestra under Mr. Nay, and Mr. Albert A. Orcutt sang some illustrated songs; but the best numbers were given by the children themselves, who sang snatches of patriotic and popular songs with much spirit and enjoyment.

As the children left the Hall, Mr. Samuel Oliver, in the guise of Santa Claus, delivered boxes of candy; and more valuable packages of clothing and other goods were distributed later, every child being duly remembered.

Financial statement : —

On hand April 1, 1902	$284.36
Receipts	2,096.20
	<hr/>
	$2,380.56
Expenses	2,190.07

The expenses of this undertaking were met by most generous public contributions, and the labor of preparing for it was borne with equal generosity by the following committees: —

The Employment Bureau has continued in constant operation during the year under Mr. Bronsdon's careful supervision, and makes the following report : —

Applications for employment	594
“ “ employees	240
Sent to places	256
Places filled	226

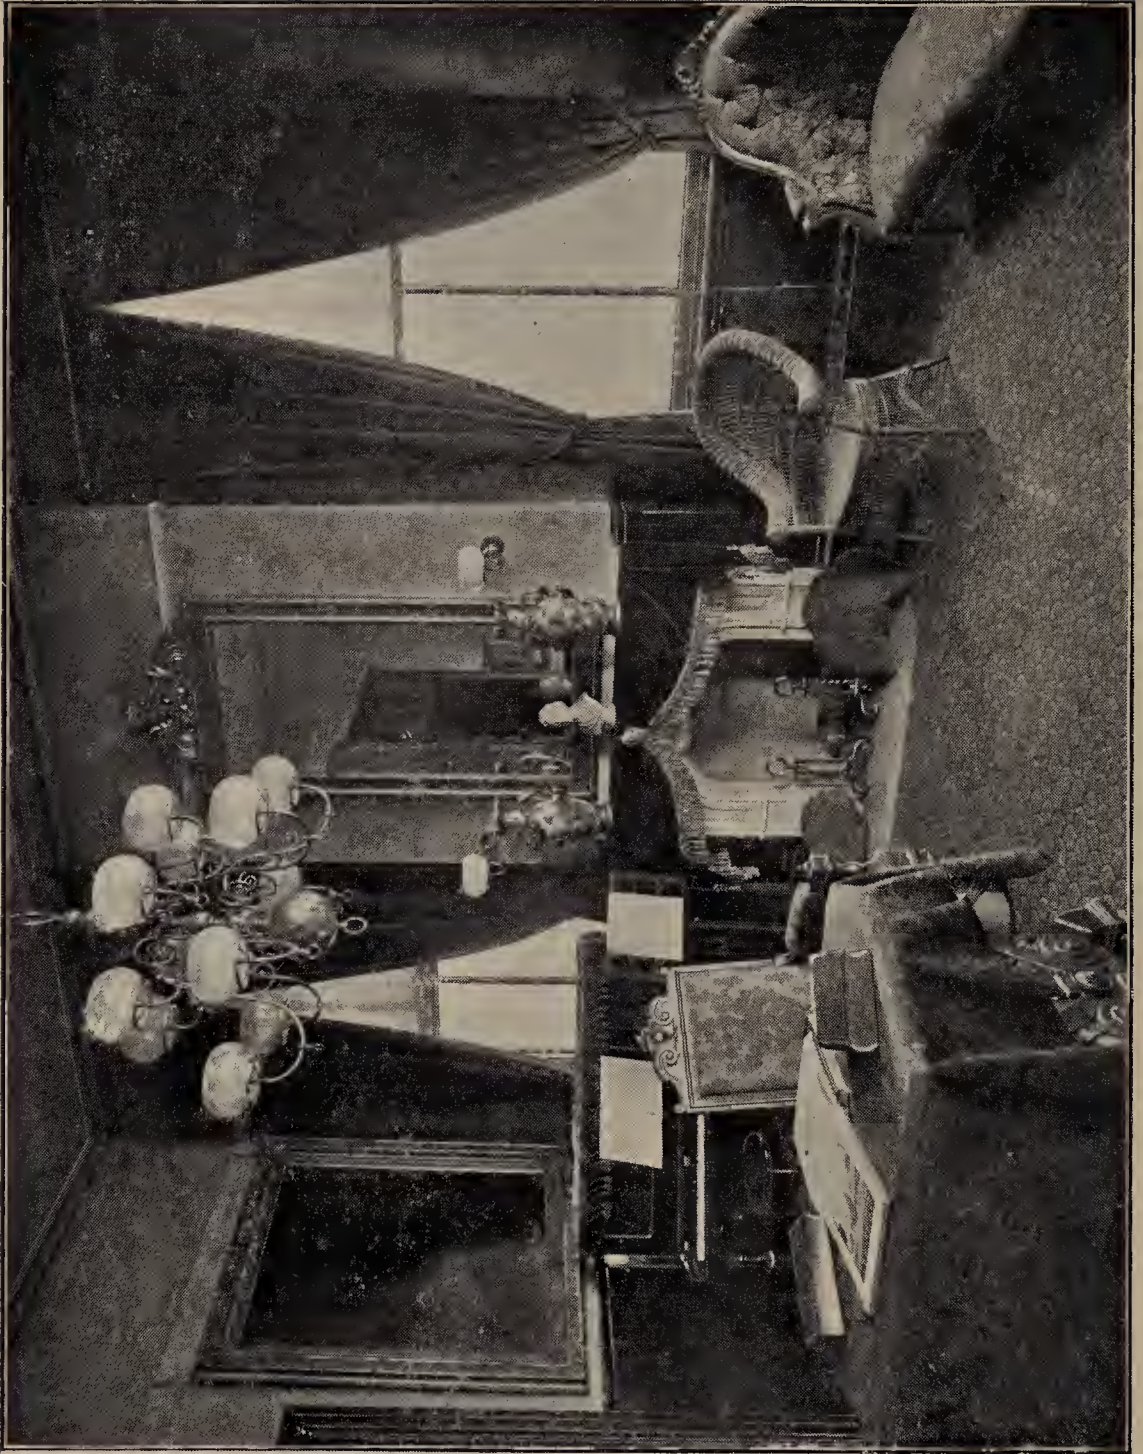

This important business is carried on without charge to either employer or employee, and both are served as promptly and efficiently as possible.

Mr. Bronsdon is also in charge of the Union's wardrobe, from which clothing contributed by generous friends is distributed to needy men. During the past year there has been an unusual demand upon us for garments, and much good has been done in this way without humiliating the beneficiaries.

Among other minor branches of our work may be mentioned the visiting of the sick and the registration of Boarding and Lodging Houses. In these respects, as in all others, we endeavor to meet the demands of the occasion in the most considerate and helpful manner, and hope still to merit the public approval and support.

EDWARD A. CHURCH, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

SOUTH-WEST CORNER OF PARLOR.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

From the earliest years of this society the Committee on Public Worship and Religious Study has regarded this branch of the work of the Union as of vital importance, and believed it to be of great assistance in the foundation of a high-toned religious and moral character to the many young people who attend.

During the past year public religious services were held in The Union Hall every Sunday evening except during the summer months of July and August, and have been very successful in presenting moral and religious lessons.

About once a month a sacred illustrated lecture upon some topic of religious history was given, and attracted large audiences.

The vesper services were conducted by clergymen of various religious denominations, and consisted of congregational singing, responsive reading, and other exercises, with a choice programme of musical selections and a brief address or sermon.

The Committee here take occasion to publicly express their thanks and appreciation to the clergymen and others who have so kindly given their valued services.

We also take this occasion to express our gratitude and thanks to those musical friends who have, during the past year, favored the Union by taking part in the services.

Vesper Cards have been issued each month, giving the names of speakers, with their subjects, music, and other information, which have been freely distributed to members and friends of the Union.

Your Committee are always happy to provide members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to attend free, or at a moderate expense, and render such other services as are in its power.

Summer List of Clergymen. As for several years past, a public invitation was extended to the clergymen of the different religious denominations who were to be in Boston or vicinity during the summer vacation season to send or leave their addresses with the President of the Union.

A full list was carefully prepared, which was freely consulted, and proved to be of great convenience to many persons who had occasion to desire the services of a clergyman during that time.

The following-named clergymen and laymen have conducted services from April 1, 1902, to April 1, 1903: —

COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.

THE GYMNASIUM.

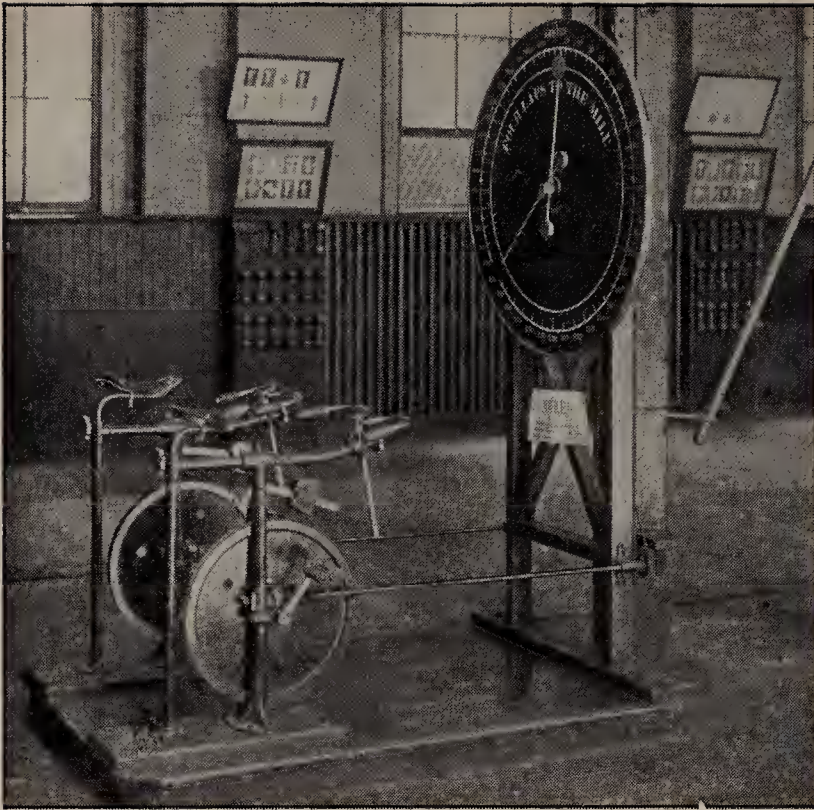

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Union Gymnasium.

The constant growth and increasing popularity of this department is reflected in the exhibit for the season of 1902-3. After the alterations and additions of previous years, it was believed that the Gymnasium and its connections would afford ample accommodation to our members for some time to come; but the continued increase in patronage has made further expansion necessary, and the later improvements have required all the remaining available room in the building which can be used for gymnasium purposes.

On April 1, 1903, there were 1,360 members, and on the 11th of last November there were 1,405 members, which is not only high-water mark for the year, but the record number in the history of the Union Gymnasium, now the largest in Boston.

This is a most gratifying showing, and proves beyond question the usefulness of a modern gymnasium, conducted on scientific and hygienic principles, and fully equipped with the most improved apparatus, designed for the rational physical development of men of all ages and conditions. Apparatus of the latest and most approved pattern has been installed, and additional large ventilated lockers have been added. The gallery in the easterly end of the building affords much more floor space both for apparatus and exercising; but, even with these improvements, the Gymnasium is often taxed to its fullest capacity.

BICYCLE RACING MACHINE.

Class-work.

This important feature was almost unknown a generation ago; but it is now recognized as one of the most important and beneficial kinds of gymnasium work. The popularity of this form of exercise is shown by the increasing attendance of men and boys during the past season; and the general physical improvement of our members at the end of the course is a strong argument in favor of this system.

The classes are divided into the following: free movement, dumb bell, Indian club, high-bars, parallel bars, German horse, vaulting and tumbling. The instructors and leaders are: Superintendent German F. Hoffman, Assistant Superintendent Everett F. Parks, and Messrs. Charles B. Sanborn, John A. Dykeman, Fred W. Newell, Walter S. Robbins, B. J. Weston, E. W. Steele, I. George De Cost, Albert H. Ross, Maurice H. Thorner, Rodney L. Prizer, Walter T. Spears. Special Classes for Boys are held every Saturday morning through the season.

The music for the class-work has continued in charge of our pianist, Mr. E. J. Joclyn, whose Music. familiarity with the special requirements of this position has contributed in no small measure to the attractiveness of these drills.

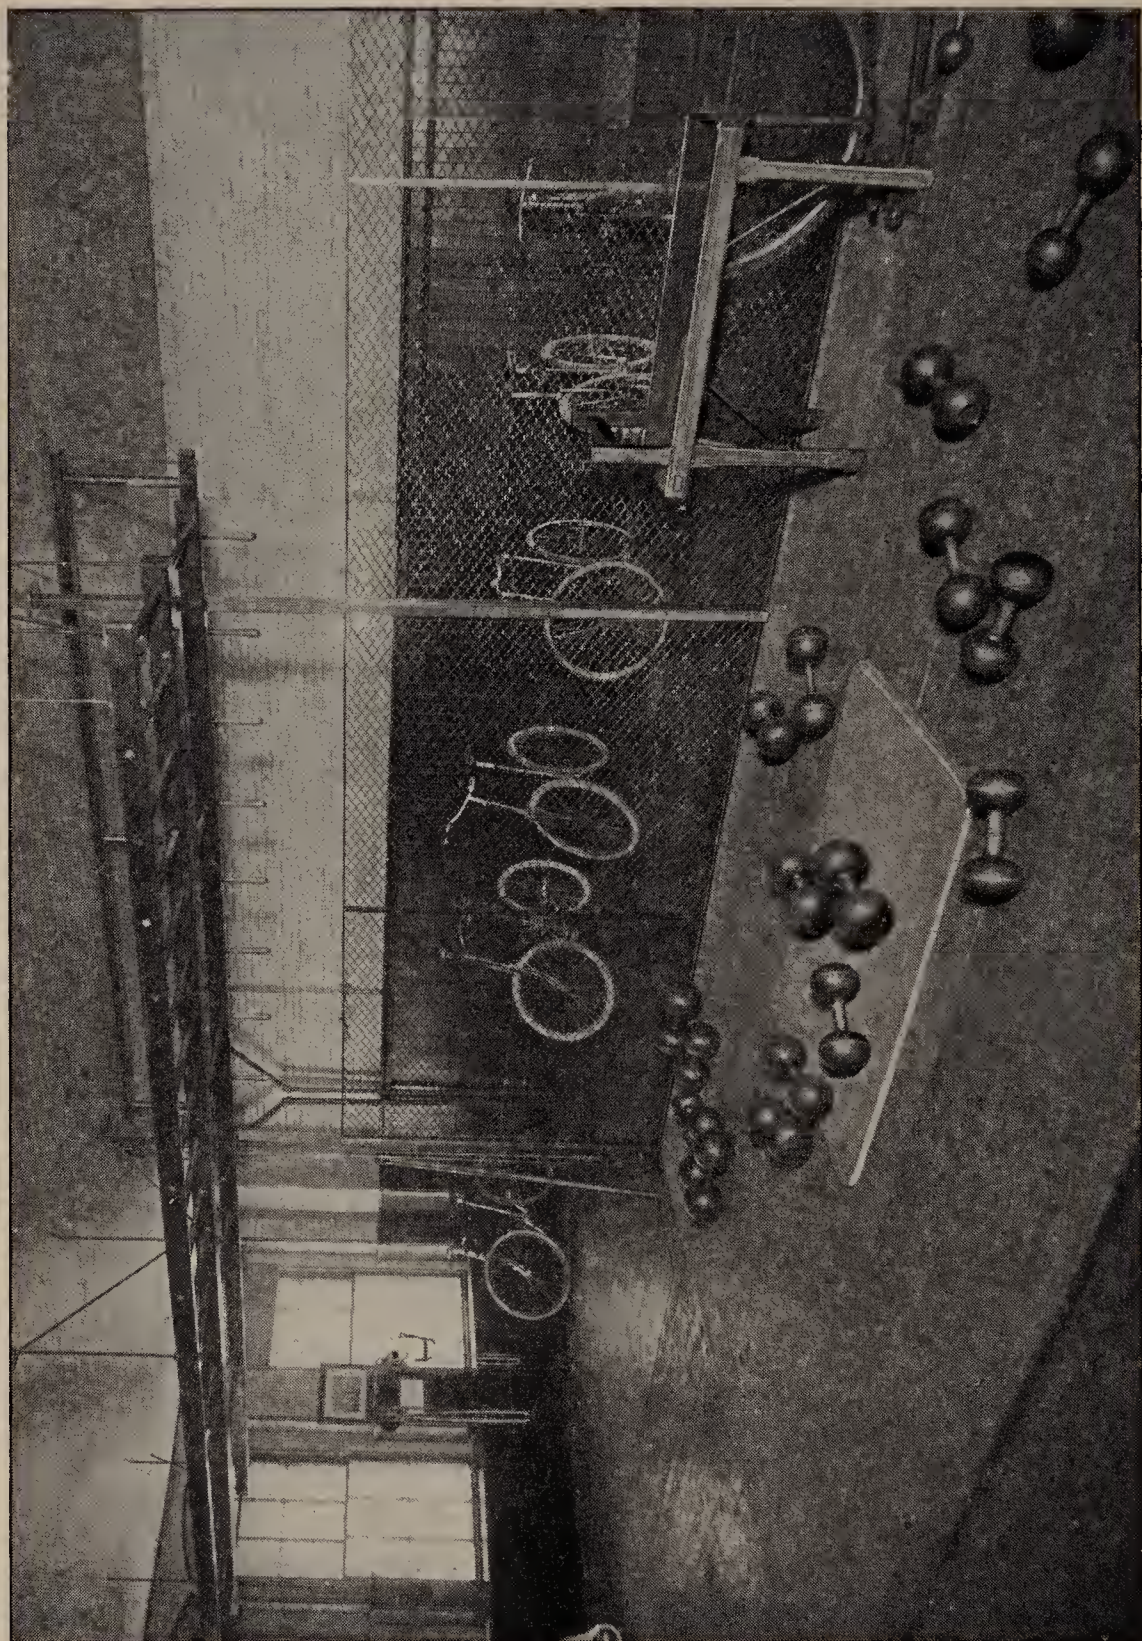

The handsome white marble Hand-ball Court has proved the wisdom of its introduction, as it has been in constant use, both winter and summer; Hand=ball Court. and the exhilarating exercise which the game affords, with its attending feature of friendly competition, has been of great physical benefit to large numbers of young men.

Among the important features of all gymnasiums are the bathing facilities. Our Bath-rooms, both general and private, are models of construction and cleanliness, being under constant supervision by a special attendant. They are thoroughly equipped Bath=rooms. with the latest appliances in this line, which make hot and cold water bathing delightful and invigorating.

BICYCLE-ROOM AND DEVELOPING APPARATUS.

A handsome bath-room, constructed of white marble, has been placed adjacent to the dressing-rooms, at the easterly end of the Gymnasium, thereby adding to the convenience of the occupants of lockers in that section.

The Dressing-rooms now contain a total of 1,381 ventilated lockers, and four private dressing-rooms meet the special needs of many of our patrons.

INDIVIDUAL BATH-ROOM.

The lighting of the Gymnasium by the arc and incandescent systems, and the introduction of electric fans, have resulted in a great improvement in the illumination and ventilation.

One exhibition was given during the year, the programme consisting of novel and attractive features which gave practical illustration of the advancement and proficiency of the members.

Our Superintendent, Mr. Hoffman, and his assistant, Mr. Parks, have both largely contributed to the effectiveness and popularity of the class-work and the general gymnasium work; and they have also given personal care and instruction to such individual members as sought their counsel.

The Bicycle-room, originally opened as an experiment, has become a fixture, and is used daily (except Sundays) by members of the Gymnasium and Union alike. This room has a convenient entrance from the street, and the checking of wheels is free.

Massage. The massage treatment remains in care of our expert masseur, Mr. Edwin F. Harding; and his services have been extensively availed of by those who find this special treatment beneficial to their individual needs.

Physical Examinations. Special attention is called to the opportunity extended all Gymnasium members for a free physical examination by our Medical Director, Dr. William R. Woodbury.

The Medical Director's office has been recently supplied with a complete outfit of the most approved appliances for the testing and measuring of those who take physical examinations, these examinations being also in accordance with the Civil Service rules and methods.

When a young man joins a gymnasium, he should be guided so as to exercise intelligently; i.e., his exercising should be adapted to his individual needs. The larger percentage of our members avail themselves of Dr. Woodbury's advice, and at the end of the term they are re-examined to ascertain exactly what progress they have made.

The report of our Medical Director, Dr. William R. Woodbury, is herewith appended in full.

REPORT OF DR. WILLIAM R. WOOD- BURY, (Harvard) Medical Director.

BOSTON, March 31, 1903.

MR. WALTER H. DUGAN, Chairman of Committee on Physical Culture :

Dear Sir,— During the period covered by this report the members of the Gymnasium have availed themselves liberally of the advantages of the Medical Director's office. Most of the new members and a considerable number of the older members have met the Medical Director. Each one was given a thorough and careful physical examination; his measurements and strength tests were taken and recorded; and advice was given him as to the kind and amount of gymnasium exercise he needed, and the frequency with which it should be taken. He was given also a duplicate of the record made and kept and indexed by the Medical Director,— a card telling his measurements, strength, and physical condition, and also his relative physical condition as compared with that of the average member of the Union Gymnasium.

Four hundred and twenty-five men and boys were examined, the extreme ages being fifty-five and a half and twelve and a half years. The average age was twenty-three years and two months.

Some of the members who had been examined in the early part of the year presented themselves later for re-examination, and without one exception satisfactory improvement in their measurements and physical condition was found to have been made.

This past year the eight thousandth examination was made in the Medical Director's office of this Gymnasium. The complete records of all these examinations have been kept, and are available for statistical use; and work has been begun upon a new tabulation of the measurements, strength, and physical condition of the gymnasium members. When the tabulation is completed, each member can compare his condition with that of the average of at least five thousand members of the Union Gymnasium.

In its equipment and appointments the Medical Director's office is complete, and the Medical Director wishes to thank the Committee on Physical Culture for the generous and hearty co-operation it has given him.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM R. WOODBURY, M.D.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE VI.

"Duties of the Board of Directors.

"It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

"First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

"Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

"Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society."

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THIS SOCIETY.

1851. The Boston Young Men's Christian Union was instituted in 1851, and incorporated under its present name in 1852.

Sept. 17, 1851, fifty-two years ago, the foundation of this society was laid.

After a successful existence of twelve years its work was temporarily discontinued, in consequence of the interruption caused by the Civil War.

REORGANIZATION, APRIL 15, 1868.

The work was resumed again in 1868 under its present auspices, and rooms were provided at No. 12 West Street. These soon proving too small for the purposes of the society, larger ones were taken 1868. in the fall of 1868 at what was then 300 Washington Street, corner of Suffolk Place, where the whole building above the first floor was eventually occupied.

These premises also proving inadequate, it became necessary again to move and enlarge the accommodations. A suitable lot of land having been found, a public appeal was made in the spring of 1874 for funds with which to purchase the land and erect a building for the society. By the generosity of its friends the necessary amount with which to begin the work was speedily secured.

NEW BUILDING.

The corner-stone of the new building was laid at noon of Sept. 16, 1875, in the presence of members of the Trustees and of the Board of Government, 1875. and of a large number of interested friends.

COMPLETION AND DEDICATION.

The present building was completed and dedicated to the use of the Union March 15, 1876. By the munificent legacy of eighty thousand dollars 1876. from the late Joseph B. Eaton, a Life Member, supplemented by the generous gifts of many friends, the society was enabled in 1879 (December 10) to hold its building free from all indebtedness.

The enlarged facilities not only increased the power of the Union in various fields of benevolent work at home and abroad, but the greatly augmented membership tested the building to its utmost capacity.

ENLARGEMENT AND REDEDICATION.

In 1882, on account of the constantly increasing membership of the Union, and the growing and pressing need of still larger accommodations, the society found that the building was still not spacious enough, and an enlargement was deemed necessary. An appeal was made to its numerous friends, who promptly responded; and the addition to the building was made and dedicated May 28, 1883.

The extension has a frontage of seventy-two feet on Boylston Square, so that now the Union Building has light from all four sides, and covers over eleven thousand feet.

Aims and Objects.

The chief aim of the officers of the society is to make the Rooms, to as great an extent as possible, a home for young men; to offer every possible attraction in the shape of books, papers, games, pleasant companions, classes, public religious services, lectures, amateur and musical entertainments, and other means of instruction and recreation.

Without losing sight of its special work, the Union has always been ready to discharge its duty to the community by such general benevolent work as may come within its scope.

In this branch of outside work the officers have been greatly assisted by members, and committees of ladies who have labored indefatigably and successfully. Among these special objects may be mentioned the "Christmas and New Year's Festival for Needy Children," the "Rides for Invalids," and "Country Week" for poor children.

In addition to these are the occasions when, at times of disaster abroad, the Rooms have been made a depot for the receipt of contributions, and a source for the distribution of relief.

Central Location.

The building is very centrally located, being situated on Boylston Street, corner of Tamworth Street, near Tremont Street, overlooking the Common, and has also a frontage on Boylston Square, with an entrance opposite Washington Street.

It is open to light and air on every side, is near the entrance to the subway, corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets, and nearly all the various lines of electric cars either pass the door or near by, on Tremont and Washington Streets.

Reception Room and Office.

The Reception Room is at the head of the first flight of stairs from Boylston Street, with side windows opening upon Tamworth Street, formerly called Lowell Place. The members and all other persons visiting the Union enter here, and from this room pass to the other portions of the building occupied by the society.

It contains the desk of the Curator, Librarian, and Book-keeper, and facilities for checking the garments of members. It is also supplied with tables for checkers and dominos (for use after five o'clock P.M.), an aquarium, a case containing a nearly complete collection of the birds of New England, and the leading Boston daily newspapers on file.

The business of the society is here transacted, strangers and others desiring information are received, and such attentions are afforded as are in the power of the Union to furnish.

It is estimated that in the more active season (October to May) from 1,600 to 2,200 young men and others visit the Union Rooms daily.

This room is open every day, including Sundays, from eight o'clock A.M. to ten o'clock P.M.

The Sitting Room.

The Union Sitting Room, connected with this room, fronts on Boylston Street, and commands a fine view of the Common. It is pleasantly furnished, has a piano, and is intended to be a social room for members. It has a cabinet containing minerals, insects, etc.

Chess Room.

Adjoining the Sitting Room is the Chess Room, especially devoted to chess-playing, and open to members after two o'clock P.M.

An additional room for chess and checkers has also been provided (Room No. 5).

President and Directors' Room.

The President and Directors' Room, connected with the Reception Room in the rear, is used for the business purposes of the society. It commands a view of the entire floor.

The Library.

The Library and Reading Room is in the L, and is also connected with the Reception Room. It is lighted with windows on three sides, and is furnished with a library of over sixteen thousand six hundred volumes, with the leading magazines, religious papers of all denominations, illustrated weekly, and daily papers.

The Library Room has a capacity for from forty thousand to fifty thousand volumes, and is the largest-reading-room in Boston, with the exception of the new Public Library, being one hundred and twelve feet long, and having five thousand feet of floor-space.

Members can at all times take books from the shelves and read them in the room, the Library thus becoming so attractive that many are induced to spend their time in reading who would not do so unless the books were placed, as it were, in their hands. Books can also be taken for home reading by first having them charged at the Librarian's desk.

Correspondence.

Facilities for correspondence are furnished to members, in connection with the Library.

The Study.

The Union Study, opening from the Library, is supplied with books of reference, accessible to members at all times.

Toilet Rooms.

The Toilet Room, with bathing-rooms attached, is down a rear flight of stairs from the Reception Room.

The Gymnasium.

The Gymnasium, another flight below, on the ground floor, is spacious, and lighted on every side.

The improvements in 1883 added nearly three thousand feet of floor-space, so that it is now one of the largest and the most complete gymnasiums in the country.

It is 136 feet in length, and covers 6,200 superficial feet, exclusive of dressing-rooms, or, in all, over 10,000 feet.

It is provided with bath-rooms, large dressing-rooms, and is furnished with a great variety of modern apparatus of the most approved patterns.

Dressing boxes are free; and the members are entitled to the use of the shower, sponge, douche, needle, and tub baths, which are provided with hot and cold water.

The Hand-ball Court, in the Gymnasium, has a smoothly finished marble wall especially adapted to this game. Instruction is afforded to members by German F. Hoffman, Superintendent, Everett F. Parks, Assistant Superintendent, William R. Woodbury, M.D., as Medical Director, and Walter S. Robbins, John A. Dykeman, Fred W. Newell, Bertram J. Weston, E. W. Steele, Albert H. Ross, Maurice H. Thorner, Rodney L. Prizer, Walter T. Speirs, Charles B. Sanborn, and I. George De Cost, Special Instructors.

Terms. Members of the Union become entitled, by the payment of seven dollars per year, to the use of the Gymnasium at all times when open.

Four dollars per year entitle them to its use after seven o'clock P.M.

Bicycle-check Room. A Bicycle-check Room, with an entrance on Lowell Court, has been opened for the Free use of members of the Union.

Committee and Class Rooms. Committee Rooms connect with the parlor and each other by wide doors, and are used, as well as other smaller rooms, as occasion requires.

Five large and three small Class Rooms were gained by the addition to the building in 1883.

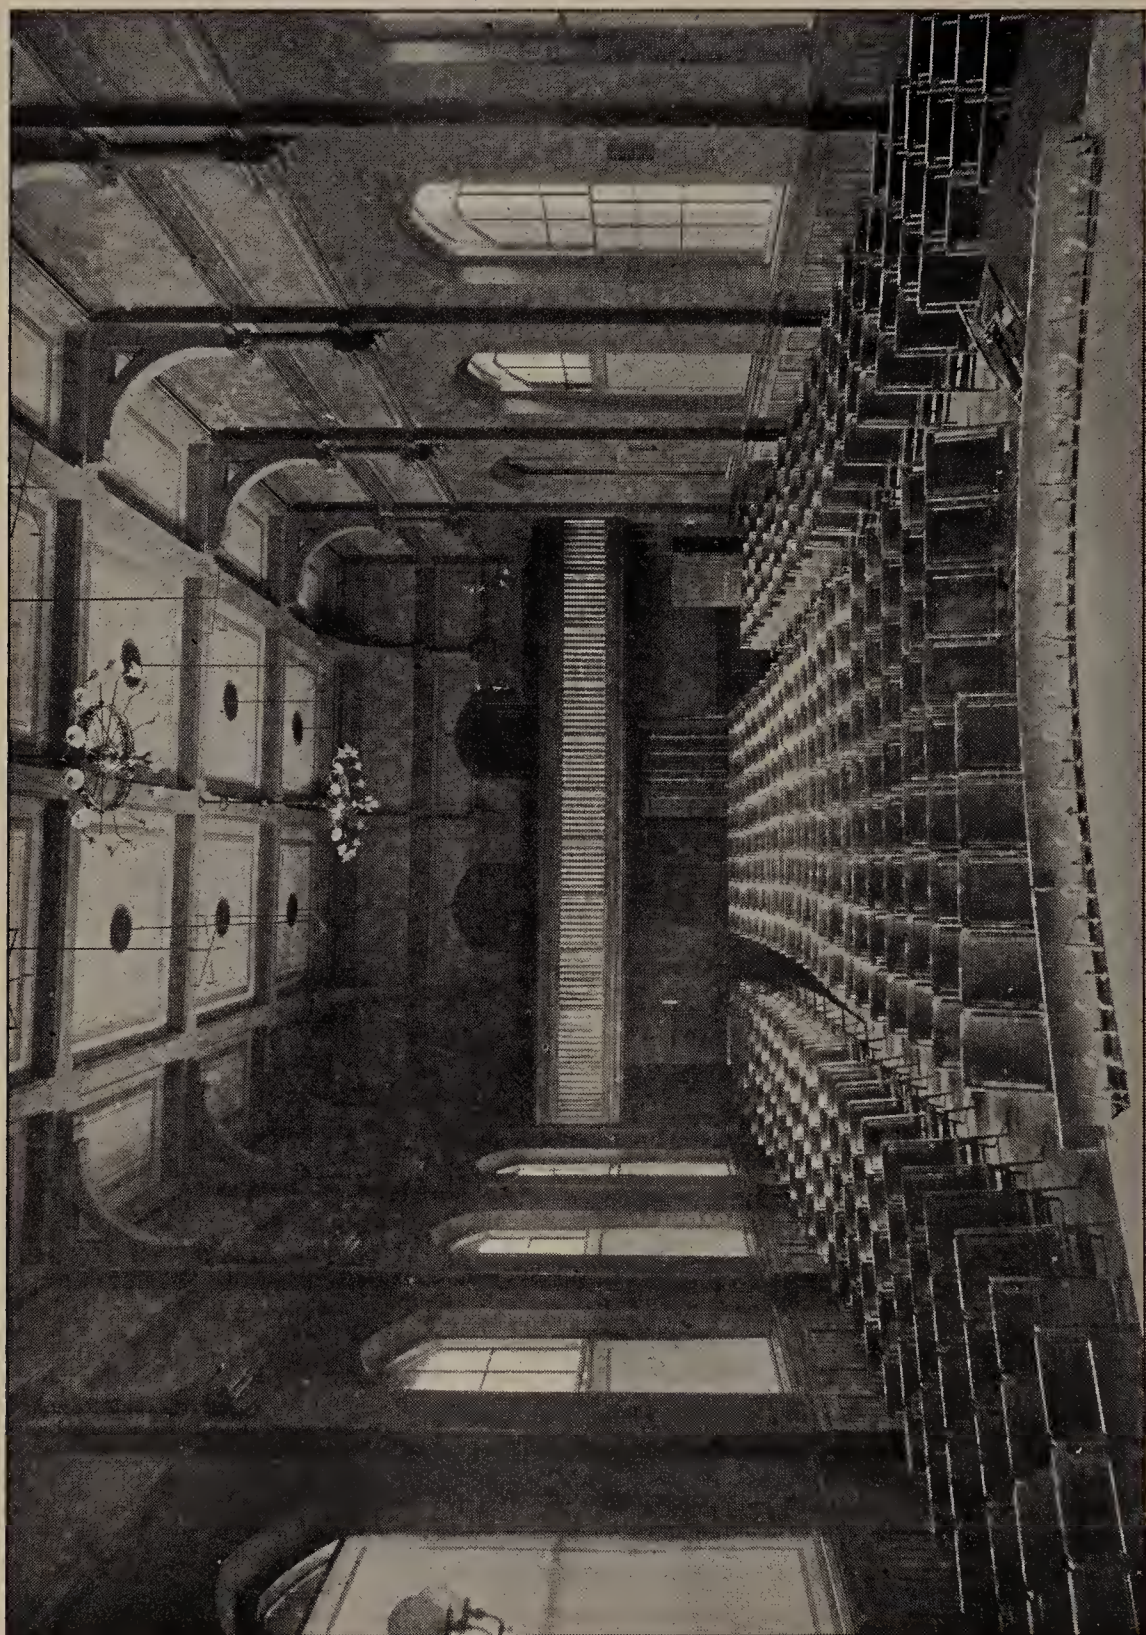

The Union Hall. The Union Hall is reached by two easy flights from Boylston Street, as well as by a spiral staircase from the Reception Room, and has an exit on Boylston Square. It is furnished with folding seats, neatly upholstered in leather, and is capable, with the gallery, of seating five hundred and two people.

There is a ticket office on the street floor, which may be used in connection with this hall, when desired.

The Stage. The stage, which was enlarged and improved in 1883, is thirty-six feet wide and thirty-nine feet deep, with a proscenium twenty-one feet, and is the largest private stage in the city.

The Union Hall is admirably adapted for concerts, lectures, and dramatic performances, for which it is provided with new and appropriate scenery. It is thoroughly ventilated, and has the incandescent system of electric lighting. Connected with the stage are large and convenient anterooms and dressing-rooms, with a separate entrance from Boylston Square.

The hall is used for religious services, lectures, entertainments, and other public purposes of the society, and is also let for similiar purposes, when not used by the Union.

ROOMS FOR GAMES.

Eaton Hall. Eaton Hall is connected with The Union Hall by double folding doors, so that the two halls may be used together, if desired, and it is also used for the ordinary purposes of the society. It will seat about one hundred persons. This hall was named Eaton Hall in memory of the late Joseph B. Eaton.

Norcross Hall. Norcross Hall, which was gained by the addition to the building, is lighted with windows opening on Boylston Square. It has a large stage and anteroom, and has a seating capacity of two hundred and seventy-five. This hall was named Norcross Hall in memory of the late Hon. Otis Norcross.

The Parlor. The Union Parlor, reached from the Reception Room by the spiral staircase or by the main stairway, is in front, with a view of the Common. This cheerful and attractive homelike room contains a piano, pictures, etc., and is furnished with appropriate fittings, and open to the members from 7.30 to 9.45 o'clock each evening, except Sunday. (The Sitting Room is open at all times.)

The Waterston Collection. A choice collection of books,—over five hundred volumes, “The Waterston Collection,”—also a large number of stereoscopic views, foreign and American, are in the Parlor for the use of members.

Many of the members avail themselves of the social use of the Parlor, and find in it the comforts of a home; and it is earnestly hoped that many more will do so.

Rooms for Games. Two small rooms connected with the Parlor.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES, CLASSES, ETC.

To promote further the objects of the society, public religious services are held every Sunday evening in The Union Hall except during July and August.

Evening Classes. Classes are formed for the study of German, French, Spanish, Italian, Book-keeping, Penmanship, Elocution, Arithmetic, English Grammar, English Literature, Mechanical Drawing, Freehand Drawing, Decoration and Design, Electricity, Shorthand, Law, and other branches.

Illustrated Lectures, Readings, Amateur Dramatic, Musical, and other entertainments are given.

BENEVOLENT AND CHARITABLE WORK.

Benevolent Work. Under the supervision of the Committee on Benevolent Action, benevolent and charitable work is carried on in various departments.

The Employment Bureau aids members, and others, in getting employment. All persons who can furnish employment, or who know of vacancies to be filled, confer a great favor by communicating with this Bureau.

The Boarding House Department endeavors to provide good boarding-places, at a moderate price, for those desiring them.

A Committee on Churches provides members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to attend, free or at a moderate expense, and renders such other services as are in its power.

A Committee on Clothing attends to the distribution of clothing, given for the purpose, to worthy young men needing such assistance.

A Committee visits and cares for members when sick.

Benevolent and charitable work of various kinds is carried on by committees of members of the Union and the Ladies' Committee.

A Committee on the "Country Week" sends poor children into the country for vacations of ten days or a fortnight.

The "Invalid Rides" Department furnishes carriages for drives in the suburbs, to convalescents, in the hospitals and elsewhere.

Invitation. Young men, without regard to their religious belief or association, are cordially invited to become members of the society, and to co-operate in the accomplishment of its purposes.

Fees. The fee for Annual Membership is One Dollar.

Subscription Membership, Five Dollars.

Life Membership, Twenty-five Dollars.

A subscription membership for five successive years constitutes a life membership.

All persons interested in the success of the society, who are willing to aid it by contributions, professional services as teachers, by engaging in its charitable and benevolent work, or in any other way, will confer a favor by communicating with any of its officers or committees, or proffering their assistance at the Rooms,

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION.

ARTICLE I.

Title.

THIS Society shall be called the "BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION."

ARTICLE II.

Eligibility of Members.

All young men of good moral character, and claiming to believe in the truths of Christianity, without distinction of sect or party, shall be eligible as members of this Society; but no person shall vote at any meeting of the Society who has not been a member for the period of one year, at least, previous to such meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Admission of Members.

Members may be admitted in such manner and on such conditions as the Board of Government may prescribe.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual, Subscription, and Life Members.

All persons qualified as before named, who shall be admitted in the manner herein provided, shall, upon the payment of one dollar annually, become and continue MEMBERS of this Society; upon the payment of five dollars, or more, annually, shall become and continue SUBSCRIPTION MEMBERS; and all persons so qualified and admitted, who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars in five or less annual instalments, shall become LIFE MEMBERS of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

Officers.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Board of twelve Directors, who shall be elected by ballot from members of the Society, and shall constitute the Board of Government. At the annual meeting in the year 1898, four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years; four directors, each to serve two years; and four directors, each to serve one year; and at each annual meeting thereafter four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Government shall have power to appoint, subject to their direction, such other officers and committees from among the members as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April; and other regular meetings shall be held on the second Wednesdays of July, October, and January. The Board of Directors may call other meetings of the Society from time to time; and they shall call such meetings whenever requested so to do by the written application of any seventeen members, stating the purposes for which such meeting is to be held; said meetings to be called in such manner as the said Board may deem expedient, having previously given reasonable notice thereof. Seventeen members shall constitute a quorum of the Society for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

Permanent Fund.

The Board of Directors may transfer such of the funds of the Society as they may think best to a Permanent Fund, may appoint five trustees to control such fund, and shall at the time of such appointment determine the character of the trust by an instrument in writing. Vacancies occurring at any time hereafter in the number of said trustees shall be filled by the remaining members, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors for the time being.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments.

These articles may be added to, altered, or amended at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, provided that such additions, alterations, or amendments shall have been proposed in writing at one meeting, at least, prior to that at which they are to be acted upon.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

ARTICLE I.

Meetings.

REGULAR meetings of the Board of Government shall be held on the first Monday of each month. Special meetings may be called at any time, by order of the President, Secretary, or any two Directors. The Secretary shall notify members of the time and place of such meetings.

ARTICLE II.

Standing Committees.

At the first meeting of the Board in each year, eight standing committees shall be appointed by the President, who shall be under the authority and subject to the direction of the whole Board; and the reports of the various committees shall be first in order at each regular meeting of the Board. The committees may appoint, subject to the approval and ratification of the Board, such sub-committees from among the members of the Society as they shall deem fit, provided, however, that each sub-committee shall be subject in its action to the committee of the Board to which it is subordinate. The eight committees shall be constituted as follows:—

I. COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.— They shall have charge of the financial affairs of the Society, and shall, with the Treasurer, devise ways and means for procuring funds, obtaining donations and assessments, investing the same, and superintending all disbursements. They shall audit the report of the Treasurer before it is submitted to the Union at the annual meetings.

2. COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.— They may provide for courses of lectures or single lectures; shall organize and have supervision of all clubs and classes formed for instruction or discussion, except classes for religious study and discussion; and shall have general supervision of all entertainments, both public and private.

3. COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.— They shall have the general charge of all matters connected with this department. They shall purchase such books for the Library and Study, and obtain such newspapers and other periodicals as they deem expedient.

4. COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.— They shall have the general charge of the rooms, and shall take especial pains to introduce strangers visiting the city.

5. COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS.— They shall organize means for increasing the membership of the Society, and shall have the general supervision of the admission of new members.

6. COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.— They shall organize means for providing strangers, and others in want, with employment, with good boarding-houses, with seats in churches, and shall have the general supervision of all works of benevolence and reform undertaken by the Union.

7. COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.— They shall have charge of all measures for public religious worship undertaken by the Union, either within or outside of the rooms of the Society, and shall have the supervision of all classes formed for religious study and discussion.

8. COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.—They shall have the general charge of the gymnasium and athletic sports, and other measures for promoting the health of the members.

ARTICLE III.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall present to the Board a Monthly Report showing the condition of the finances. No money shall be paid by him except by the authority of the Board, or approval in writing of some member of the committee under whose direction the expenditures were incurred.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual Report.

The Board shall present, at the annual meeting of the Society, a detailed statement of the condition of the institution and of its operations during the preceding year.

ARTICLE V.

Reports of Committees.

It shall be the duty of all committees to keep a detailed account of their proceedings, and at the end of the year to place the same, with the reports of their sub-committees, in the hands of the Secretary of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments to By-Laws.

The foregoing By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board, providing two-thirds of the members present assent thereto; but no alteration, addition, or amendment shall be adopted at the same meeting at which it is proposed.

The President, Secretary, and Treasurer, ex officio, shall have the supervision of all printing and advertising.
